vari-colored balloons were suspended from these with ribbons. The lanais were strung with bright-hued Japanese lanterns alternating with hanging baskets, which were outlined with electric lights. The effect was softened by knots and streamers of pink and blue tulle. Palms, ferns and cut flowers were used in great profusion. The balloon idea was used again later in the evening when, in a favor dance, the men found their partners by matching flowers attached by ribbons to bright-colored balloons.

About forty couples danced in this charming setting to the music of a splendid quartet. At about 11 a refreshing supper was served. Among those present were the guest of honor, Miss Ruth Anderson, and Miss Helen McLean, Miss Margaret Jones, Miss Myrtle Schuman, Miss Fanny Hoogs, Miss Alice Hoogs, Miss Marjory Gilman, Miss Violet Atherton, Miss Laura Atherton, Miss Hazel Gear, Miss Hazel Buckland, Miss Vivian Buckland, Miss Eloise Wichman, Miss Thelma Murphy, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Elizabeth Carter, Miss Phoebe Carter, Miss Carrie McLean, Miss Helen Spalding, Miss Mary von Holt, Miss Ramona Morgan, Miss Margaret Center, Miss Bernice Halstead, Miss Helen Jones, Miss Margaret Jones, Miss Marie Mann, Miss Alice Hastings, Miss Daphne Damon, Miss Geraldine Berg, Miss Elizabeth Perrier, Miss Dorothy Guild, Miss Rosamund Swanzy, Miss

Reception on Board the New Zealand.
 Thursday afternoon was gala day along the waterfront when the Captain and officers of H. M. S. New Zealand entertained society folk of town at a large reception on board the battle-cruiser. The ship was gaily decked with flags and vari-colored bunting, and with the attractive uniforms of the men and pretty gowns of the ladies, it presented a scene of great festivity. Tea was served at two long tables on deck—prettily adorned with pink carnations, and what a good tea it was—sandwiches, coffee, tea, lemonade, cake, ice cream and countless other goodies to tempt the most finicky appetite. The guests were shown about the ship, from the turrets to the officers' quarters, which were filled with lilies and carnations for the occasion. Captain Halsey and a few of the officers were presented also with some beautiful leis of the latter flower. The ship's band played sparkling tunes, and later, when the crowd had thinned, the younger people passed the time in dancing. There were between four and five hundred people present during the course of the reception, everyone enjoying this glimpse of British hospitality on board the big warship.

Captain Halsey's Dinner.
 A very enjoyable dinner was given on board H. M. S. New Zealand Thursday night, when Capt. Halsey acted as host. The table was attractively decorated for the occasion. After dinner the guests adjourned to the upper deck where they were joined by a few of the younger officers. Those present were General and Mrs. Frederick Funston, British Consul and Mrs. Bentleys, Admiral C. B. T. Moore, Lieut. and Mrs. Lemuel Stevens, Lieut. William G. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Swanzy, Miss Nora Swanzy, Miss Emily Farley, Mr. Herbert, Mr. Boyle and Mr. George Davies.

Hosts at the Navy Dance.
 A number of people who attended the navy dance at the Country Club on Wednesday, seem to be laboring under the misapprehension that it was a government affair. On the contrary, the dance was strictly private, and any one who was invited was indebted to one of the following for their hospitality: Admiral and Mrs. C. B. T. Moore, Medical Director and Mrs. Ross, Major and Mrs. John Myers, Captain and Mrs. Richard Cutts, Captain and Mrs. A. B. Owens, Civil Engineer and Mrs. E. Gayler, Civil Engineer and Mrs. S. Gordon, Pass Assistant Surgeon and Mrs. William Kerr, Lieutenant and Mrs. Henry S. Green, Paymaster Walter B. Isard, Lieutenant and Mrs. Lemuel Stevens, Lieutenant W. T. Evans, and Lieutenant Carl Bostrom.

Luncheon on Ford Island.
 Mr. C. A. Brown was host at a jolly little luncheon on Sunday, the affair taking place at his lodge on Ford Island. The party steamed over in a launch and spent the day, picnic fashion, in exploring the wilds of the little island. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Klamp, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis, Princess Kawanakoa, Mrs. Emmet May, Dr. C. B. Cooper and the host.

Miss McIntyre's Dinner.
 The Princess Kawanakoa was the guest of honor at a charmingly appointed dinner on Thursday night, when Miss Margaret McIntyre entertained at her home on Beretania street. Other guests were Mr. C. A. Brown, Miss Kate McIntyre, Mr. Frank McIntyre and Mrs. Emmet May.

The Princess Entertained.
 Mrs. Harry Lewis was hostess at

Cricket Club Luncheon.

The members of the Cricket Club were hosts at an informal luncheon on Wednesday at the home of Dr. George Herbert on Keeaumoku street during the intermission of the game that was going on in the field opposite. The guests were seated at two long tables which were tastefully decorated with yellow and white flowers. Among those who attended the luncheon were Capt. Halsey, Commander Grace, Capt. Blount, Lieut. Bovill, Mr. Alexander, Lieut. Jones, Lieut. Walker-Jones, Lieut. Birrell, Midshipman Symon, Dr. Benz, Dr. Clark Hall, Midshipman Scott, Midshipman Bowley, Mr. Hanham, Mr. R. Rath, Mr. E. Anderson, Midshipman Englehard, Lord Burghess, J. C. McGill, G. Marshall, Mr. D. W. Anderson, Mr. S. Forrest, Mr. R. C. Walker, Mr. H. Blackman, Mr. L. G. Blackman, Mr. C. F. Maxwell, Mr. W. O. Phillips, Mr. Charles Herbert, Mr. J. Phillips, Mr. Matheison, Mr. Henry G. Winkley, Mr. George Davies and others.

Von Holt Swimming Party.

Mr. Herman von Holt was host at a delightful surfing party on Wednesday in honor of his house guest, Mr. Truman Smith. The guests went out in canoes, and after riding in on a dozen or more breakers, took a plunge in the warm Pacific. Afterwards a substantial supper was served. Those present were Miss Elizabeth Carter, Miss Phoebe Carter, Miss Helen Wilder, Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Ruth Hyde, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Mary von Holt, Miss Hilda von Holt, Mr. Alexander Anderson, Mr. Jack Galt, Mr. Carter Galt, Mr. Francis Brown, Mr. Paul Achilles, Mr. Allan Renton, Mr. Reginald Carter and Mr. Truman Smith.

Mrs. Timberlake's Dinner.

The Princess Kawanakoa, who has been entertained so extensively since her return to the islands a fortnight ago, was the guest of honor at a charming dinner given by Major and Mrs. Edward J. Timberlake on Tuesday night at their bungalow at Fort Ruger. The table was prettily decorated with pink roses and long-stemmed violets while the places were marked by wee pink birds which perched on the sides of the tumblers. Other accessories were in the same tones of pink and delicate lavender. Covers were laid for twelve.

Mrs. Carter's Swimming Party.

Mrs. George Carter is entertaining about forty young people this evening at a supper and swimming party. The affair will take place at Kalo, her beach home near Kalaiala. In this beautiful weather, with the moon in its zenith, open air parties of this kind are more than enjoyable.

Bridge at Fort Ruger.

A very delightful party took place on Wednesday when Mrs. G. Humbert entertained the Bridge Club at Fort Ruger. The prizes, brass candlesticks and an embroidered bag, went to Mrs. Charles S. Baker, Miss Elizabeth Searle and Miss Florence Hoffman. After a delicious tea, the guests motored to the Moana Hotel courts where most of them attended the Hawaiian afternoon given by Ka Ahahuli o na Pua o Hawaii. Those present were Mrs. Charles Baker, Mrs. J. S. Johnston, Mrs. Benjamin Watkins, Mrs. Charles A. Clark, Mrs. Ressler, Mrs. Nelson Lansing, Mrs. Jones, Miss Marie Mann, Miss Edna Mann, Miss Florence Hoffman, Miss Sara Lucas and Miss Elizabeth Searle.

Engagement Announcement.

The engagement is announced of Miss Mary M. McLean, sister of Dr. C. R. McLean of Ewa, Hawaii, to Mr. Clarence W. Gilvin, of Koloa, Hawaii.

Mrs. Watkins' Dinner.

A very delightful dinner of an informal nature was given by Mrs. B. H. Watkins on Saturday night at her home at Fort Shafter. A pretty centerpiece of white daisies was on the table while the light was furnished by dainty silk shaded candle sticks. After dinner the party attended the hop at the Second Infantry clubhouse. Those present were Lieut. Francis T. Evans, Miss Florence Hoffman, Dr. L. C. Mudd, Lieut. Robert G. Calder and the hostess, Mrs. Watkins.

Miss Young's Dance.

A very attractive dance was given on Thursday night, when Miss Bertha Young entertained at her home at Waikiki in honor of Miss Ruth Anderson, who leaves for the states. The Oriental idea was carried out in the decorations. Two large Japanese umbrellas were hung at either end of the room, outlined with electric lights,
